Fans of Dusty Springfield, Petula Clark and the other female stars of the sixties British Invasion will enjoy the trip down memory lane provided by SHOUT! The Mod Musical at Harrah's.

Five talented female singers...dressed in the smashing fashions of the era, sing and discothèque dance their way through a decade's worth of groovy songs as they confront the rapid social changes that marked that decade in London and the world...the songs themselves express the changing attitudes of the swinging sixties and do a bang-up job of it.
