Helen Reddy, one of the most successful female artist of the 1970's, visits the mod girls at Shout!

She may have been known more as a women's-libber than a mod, but Helen Reddy fit right in with the girls of Shout! The Mod Musical. Reddy is no stranger to musical theatre. Her first top 40 hit in the U.S. was a cover of "I Don't Know How to Love Him" from Jesus Christ Superstar. She garnered her first #1 single in the States with the feminist anthem, "I Am Woman," which she cowrote with fellow Aussie Ray Burton.

Ms. Reddy attended the Friday evening performance of Shout! on Aug. 25, and visited the lovely ladies in the cast backstage.

L-R: Casey Clark, Julie Dingman Evans, Helen Reddy, Marie-France Arcilla, Erin Crosby, Erica Schroeder.
